THOUSANDS OF ROOMS TO CHOOSE

NON-STOP SPORTS

When the Tampa Bay Buccaneers took home the Lombardi Trophy in the historic Super Bowl LV at Raymond James Stadium, Tampa Bay became known as "Champa Bay!" The Bucs are the first team to ever host, play, and win a Super Bowl. The celebration continued when the Tampa Bay Lightning (NHL) won the 2020 & 2021 Stanley Cup. The Tampa Bay Rays (MLB) also won the 2020 American League Championship and the Tampa Bay Rowdies (USL) captured back-to-back USL Eastern Conference Titles in 2020 & 2021.

"Have-a-Tampa" cigar and see how the Historic Ybor City became the Cigar Capital of the World. Today, skilled tabaqueros still roll cigars by hand along the brick-lined streets of historic Seventh Avenue. Enjoy the live music while sipping a café con leche or enjoy one of Ybor City's signature restaurants and nightclubs. Sample the official sandwich of Tampa Bay, an original Cuban Sandwich, which was invented for Ybor City cigar rollers. Visit Cuba without a passport by stepping through the gates of José Martí Park, where the land has been owned by the Cuban people since the 1950s in honor of the famed Cuban revolutionary fighter. Ybor City Walking Tours keep the neighborhood's history and influence alive. Be sure to keep an eye – and an ear – out for Ybor City's oldest residents, wild chickens that strut through the streets.

YBOR CITY + CUBAN CULTURE

TAMPA RIVERWALK

The 2.6-mile (4 km) Tampa Riverwalk links together some of downtown Tampa's most popular attractions, hotels, museums, and parks like gems on a string. At one end, visit Sparkman Wharf, a popular Tampa Bay food hall on the Tampa Bay waterfront. Stroll to the other end of the Riverwalk to Armature Works and watch the sunset from Ulele or take in the 360-degree waterfront views at the re-imagined Sail Plaza, steps from the waterfront Tampa Convention Center. Unlock endless adventure, culture, and history at seven unique attractions for one low price with the NEW Tampa Riverwalk Attraction Pass.

Situated where the Hillsborough River meets Tampa Bay, there are plenty of ways to get out and play on the water. See the city from a new angle by renting a water bike. Bring your friends for happy hour on the water with Kraken CycleBoats. Captain your own adventure when you rent an eBoat or personal vessel from the Tampa Bay Riverboat Co. Make a splash at Adventure Island's NEW Solar Vortex, The Florida Aquarium's Splash Pad or Water Works Park. Take the plunge aboard the Roaring Springs water ride at ZooTampa at Lowry Park.
