

WELCOME TO ARLINGTON, TX

a world of wonderful

ARLINGTON ITINERARY

For those looking to accessorize: start off the day by visiting South Arlington's Gracie Lane, a collection of specialty shops and boutiques that have everything from fashionable clothes to furniture and accessories. Then make the shopping dash to Decorator's Warehouse, which is the largest Christmas store in the Lone Star State.

Did you know Arlington, Texas was once known as "Vegas before Vegas" and the largest illegal gambling destination in the country back in the '30s and '40s? Come see Arlington's checkered past at Top O' Hill Terrace for yourself!

Finish out the trip with a stop at J. Gilligan's, located in Downtown Arlington, for some world famous Irish Nachos - a skillet full of natural cut cottage fries covered in melted cheese and loaded with toppings.

Get the morning started with back to back tours of Globe Life Field (home of the Texas Rangers) and AT&T Stadium (home of the Dallas Cowboys). Then take a break and grab a bite at Texas Live! This sizzling entertainment complex serves up delicious food, top-notch live performances, two mechanical bulls and more!

Discover a world of wonders at the UT Arlington Planetarium - the biggest and best in the Metroplex. This state-of-the-art theater holds 150 stargazers and features a 3-D projection system. Get ready for an out of this world adventure!

Not far from the entertainment district, you'll find Urban Union - a local hotspot overflowing with delicious eats, craft drinks and local adventures. How about a local hand-crafted cocktail from 4 Kahunas Tiki Lounge?
