Arches National Park

Moab will surround you with the warmth and hospitality of a small resort town at the center of some of the most stunning red rock landscapes on Earth. Moab's unique combination of beautiful red rock scenery, along with the cool waters of the Colorado River, has made it one of the most sought after destinations in the southwest.

Arches National Park

Located just 5 miles (8 km) north of Moab is Arches National Park, which contains the world's largest concentration of natural sandstone arches. Although over 2,000 arches are located within the park's 76,518 acres, the park also contains an astounding variety of other geological formations. A paved scenic drive takes visitors to many of the major viewpoints within the park. Arches National Park implemented a temporary Timed Entry Reservation System from April-October 2022. A similar system may be put into place for 2023, so check with the park before your visit. Companies with a Commercial Use Authorization will not be required to have a reservation.

Island in the Sky

Canyonlands National Park - Island in the Sky District

The Island in the Sky sits atop a massive 1500 foot (457 meter) mesa, quite literally an Island in the Sky. Twenty miles (32.2 km) of paved roads lead to many of the most spectacular views in Canyon Country. From these lofty viewpoints visitors can often see over 100 miles (161 km) in any given direction, resulting in panoramic views that encompass thousands of square miles of canyon country.

Green River Overlook

Dead Horse Point State Park

32 miles (51.5 km) from Moab, Dead Horse Point State Park is one of Utah's most spectacular state parks. The view from Dead Horse Point is one of the most photographed scenic vistas in the world. Towering 2,000 feet (610 meters) above the Colorado River, the overlook provides a breathtaking panorama of Canyonlands' sculpted pinnacles and buttes.

Colorado River

Moab has an abundance of river recreation opportunities available to suit any taste. While the area is known for its family oriented whitewater trips on the Fisher Towers section of the Colorado River, there are several wilder single and multi-day trips available in Westwater and Cataract Canyons. Additionally, canoes, paddle boards and kayaks are the perfect way to explore the calm water segments of the Colorado. Individuals or groups may raft the river on their own or with a professional river outfitter.

Colorado River

Scenic Byways

The Moab area is blessed with three Scenic Byways. Scenic Byways help recognize, preserve and enhance selected roads throughout the United States based on their archaeological, cultural, historic, natural, recreational and scenic qualities. Every trip to Moab should include a drive along at least one byway, although driving all three is great way to spend a relaxing day.

- Potash-Lower Colorado River Scenic Byway U-279
- Dead Horse Mesa Scenic Byway U-313

Dinosaur Museum & Trails

Moab's Dinosaur Park & Museum (intersection of Highways 191 & 313) takes you on a journey back through time, starting with a 3D cinema that introduces you to the prehistoric world of dinosaurs. Continue on through the 5D Prehistoric Aquarium, a virtual "walking theater" that brings to life some of the most unique deep sea creatures that you will ever come face to face with, from friendly sea-turtles to an intense encounter with a Megalodon! You can then make your own tracks on a half mile hiking trail populated with state-of-the-art life-size dinosaurs. The Tracks Museum features interactive learning touch screens, games to play, and visually stunning exhibits. After learning about the dinosaur species that once walked here continue north of Moab to some of the best preserved dinosaur tracksites in the country.

Access to International Airports
